PRINCIPAL'S LETTER

Dear Parents, students and families,

ANZAC Day Observances 2015

The Centenary of the Gallipoli landing has been observed with great dignity and gratitude on both our campuses at MacKillop, here in Canberra at the AWM, at the Cenotaph in Sydney, the Shrine in Melbourne, on the Western Front, White Hall, and on the Gallipoli Peninsula.

The huge crowds expressed thanksgiving and remembrance for a long ago incident, which was a small part of the Great War but which played no small part in defining the identity of Australians. A particular thanks to Air Vice Marshall Chris Deeble who gave the Occasional Address on the senior campus, Warrant Officer Sean Polmanteer (a MacKillop parent) who gave the Occasional Address at the junior campus, and Major Daniel Hiscock (also a MacKillop parent) who provided the Bugle at both ceremonies.

Strike Action

Happily, the strike action which was part of the IEU's response to the Enterprise Agreement negotiations has now been avoided and Day 2 of Week 1 proceeded without interruption, as did parent/teacher night, with a few exceptions. It is to be hoped that the proposed Enterprise Agreement negotiations can proceed smoothly towards a swift and satisfactory conclusion. I'm very grateful to the staff who regularly discharge their responsibilities in a manner that reflects well on the profession, themselves, and the College.

Year 7 and Year 11 2016 Information Nights

Students join ANZAC Day march

Year 11 students Clair Schofield, Angela Sullivan, Annika Rooney and Olivia Knott joined students from St Patricks Cooma for the annual ANZAC Day March. The St Patrick's students were delighted to see their 'old' schoolmates join their school contingent for the march. It has become practice for our Cooma-based students to participate in the ANZAC Day ceremony in their home town and is yet another way the link between the MacKillop and St Patrick's community is strengthened. St Patrick's Cooma Principal Mrs Frances Robertson commented "You have got to love a splash of teal in the midst of a sea of green".

The New Zealand trip

Kia ora! (NZ greetings! Maori meaning: be well!) On a bright autumn day, on Tuesday 14 April, 28 student and 6 staff greeted each other enthusiastically for the drive to Sydney airport to begin our study tour of the South Island of New Zealand.

Our 12-day adventure began with a late night flight to the south island, landing in Christchurch about midnight. We then travelled through the farmlands of the Canterbury Plains, through to stunning lake Tekapo and the Church of the Good Shepard, across New Zealand's greatest mountain range, the Southern Alps to Mt Cook, then across to the West Coast and back to Christchurch.

The students were treated to such experiences as:

- Visiting the Glowworm Grotto at Te Anau
- Mt Cook walk - we all love steps (all 2300 of them)
- Tour of the Cadbury Chocolate Factory at Dunedin
- Dissecting Squid at Otago University (my favourite!)
- Visiting the locations for filming The Lord of the Rings and The Chronicles of Narnia
- Eating Gelato
- Jet boating across the Shotover river in Queenstown
- Crossing New Zealand's greatest mountain range, the Southern Alps, and travel through lush beech forests and past serene lakes
- Seeing Fox Glacier- a solid tongue of ice 13 kilometres long and 5 storeys high
- Traveling by Gondola cableway up 450 metres over Queenstown
- Viewing the incredible sights of Milford Sound, Mitre Peak and Bowen Falls
- Experiencing a 6.2 earthquake during a lecture at Christchurch University on earthquakes

A special highlight for a number of students was the College's participation in the centenary of ANZAC Day Dawn service in Christchurch. A special thanks to College students Ben Jenkins and Taylah Wittwer who lay the wreath at the cenotaph as representatives of St Mary MacKillop College.

A very big thank you to Mr Brennan, Mrs Kain, and Dr Nagabushan without whose support the trip would not have been possible. Also thanks to Mr Henry and Ms Kusta who accompanied us on our travels.

Year 9 Pastoral Care Coordinators

Mr Gary Pickering has resigned from the position of Pastoral Care Coordinator. Mr Pickering has held this position for over 5 years. I thank Gary for his service to and leadership of Pastoral Care at MacKillop during this time, particularly for his nurturing and support of students under his care, along with their families. Gary's contribution as a coordinator will be missed as he enters the next stage of his career, full-time in the classroom.

Mr Nathan Wood will join Mrs Monica Bailey in Leading the Year 9 cohort for the remainder of the year. Mr Wood has experience in various leadership positions both at MacKillop and other secondary schools within the Archdiocese and is a welcome addition to the Pastoral Care team.

Term 2 After School Sport Activity

During Term 2 Netball and Basketball will be run as an after school sports activity, available to all students in Year 7 to 9. This is again being organised by College Sports Captain Jamie Taylor with assistance from other Year 12 student volunteers.

The sessions will run from Week 2 until Week 6 from 3.30pm to 4.30pm on the Wanniassa Campus courts. Year 12 students will be coordinating the activities and a staff member will be present to supervise. All boys and girls are invited to participate including those who may play Netball and Basketball competitively as well as those who may have limited experience in these or other organised sports.

The afternoon sports activities provide a great opportunity for students to involve themselves in the school community, enjoy a social sporting environment and build friendships. Students who have attained Bronze or Silver Status can count the hours that they attend towards their application for the next level of Status, as Community Involvement time.

Consent forms for students interested are available from Pastoral Care Coordinators, the PE Staffroom or they can also be downloaded from StudyWiz.

IT TIP OF THE WEEK

ACCESSING THE H DRIVE FROM HOME

All school work, whether you're working on it at school or at home, should always be backed up to your H Drive. A common question in IT is, "How do I access my H Drive at home?" Well, you have two options:

- filr.mackillop.act.edu.au OR
- www.mackillop.act.edu.au Click on the "log in" button in the top right corner, then click on File Access: FILR.

When prompted, enter your username and password.

You can then access your H Drive and see the files and folders that you would normally have.

To add something to a folder click on the "Add Files" button in the top left hand corner just above all of your folders.

The College advises that students use their H Drive for all school work as it is backed up by the College daily.

Building parent-school partnerships

WORDS Michael Grose

Mother of all jobs

As an ex-house dad, I take my hat off to mothers.

When I was busy at work I would often think about what my wife must be doing. I used to conjure up an image of her playing happily with my three-year-old son in the sandpit at the local playgroup while the other two children slept peacefully nearby. With these images at the front of my mind I thought motherhood sure beat working for a living.

Many years ago I discovered how far from the truth my notion of motherhood really was when my wife and I swapped roles. I must confess that two of the children were at school so I had it easier than my partner but it was as close as I could get.

The first thing I learned was that while I may be the primary carer I could never be a substitute mother to my children. Take sickness or illness for example. When one of the kids was off-colour, had a cut or bruise or just needed some tender loving care they headed straight for their mother. Dad may do in the meantime, but I was a pale imitation of the real thing, their mum, when it comes to dispensing comfort. I could give them just as good a hug as any female. It is just that their mum was well ... their mum. It is as simple as that.

I also learned there are some things that fathers can't do as well as mothers. In my case it was fixing my daughters' hair. The first time I put my youngest daughter's hair in a plait she cried. Not from pain, just the embarrassment of being seen in public with a hair-do that looked like a piece of knotty, old rope. It became accepted in my house that 'dads don't do hair'.

I soon appreciated the unique skills that mothers develop if they are to survive the rigours of parenting on a daily basis. In particular, mothers seem to have the uncanny knack of doing three jobs at once while dealing with noisy or whingeing children.

Multi-task masters

Anyone who can cut a round of sandwiches, prepare breakfast for a family, find a missing pair of socks for tiny feet while making sure everyone is on track, has my vote. I have trouble getting myself dressed in the morning, let alone worrying about anyone else.

There is no place in a mother's repertoire for tunnel-vision or focusing on one task at a time. These are luxuries reserved for the workplace, not the family home. The fact that kids are noisy, demanding and often unpredictable means anyone who spends a fair time in their vicinity must be flexible, patient and able to keep cool under extraordinary pressure. Qualities I still don't possess.

Take cooking for example. The job of preparing a decent meal wasn't too hard. I could – and still can – usually produce something quite edible with a minimum of fuss. However, rarely did I have the chance to cook in isolation. There was always a child interrupting, asking for help or just wanting to chat. Not to mention fitting cooking around bathing, hearing kids read or picking them up from sports practice.

An increasing number of mothers do full-time paid work then come home for their second shift of parenting. Any mention to these mothers of my trials with the juggling act, simply evokes a shoulder shrug and a 'welcome to the real world' look.

If anyone says that motherhood is not like real work, send them my way. After many years of being the primary parent to my children – usually the preserve of women – I can really set them straight. It's hard yakka that largely goes unrewarded.

Happy Mother's Day!
